

The danger of media consolidation is clear in Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary at this strategic time before the election.

Broadcasters use the public airwaves free of charge, and are obligated by law to serve the public interest, but by large companies controlling the airwaves, democracy is being thwarted.

Media ownership rules need to be strengthened, as the action being taken by Sinclair clearly shows. Please strengthen the license renewal process as well.

Thank you for considering my comments.